DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 16-24, drawn to a method of treatment and or prevention of an inflammatory condition in a fluid containing organ comprising administering an anti-inflammatory agent and further comprising an amphipathic oil, microcrystalline wax and a carrier classified in class 514, subclass 570.
- II. Claims 25-58, drawn to a pharmaceutical composition comprising a vehicle that comprises amphipathic oil, anti-inflammatory agent, microcrystalline wax and a carrier, classified in class 424, subclass 404.
- III. Claims 59-61, drawn to an article of manufacture comprising a container or delivery device having an oxygen permeable wall, classified in class 215, subclass 261.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product as in

Art Unit: 1614

Bergamini et al. U.S. Patent No 5,679,665 wherein otic infections accompanied by inflammation are treated with a steroidal or non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agent and a vehicle (see abstract).

Inventions III and II are related as apparatus and product made. The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case the composition for treating and/or preventing an infective condition in a fluid containing organ by administering an anti-inflammatory agent in a carrier can be practiced via another apparatus, including syringes or pumps.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Treatment of mastitis

Treatment of otitis

The species are independent or distinct because each of the disclosed inflammatory conditions encompass different symptoms and the disclosed anti-inflammatory agents are patentably distinct. Therefore, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

In the event that Applicant elects either of Groups I, II or III for further prosecution on the merits, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of one inflammatory condition or bacterial disease and one anti-inflammatory agent for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held allowable. Currently claims, 16-61 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

A telephone call to the attorney is not required where: 1) the restriction requirement is complex, 2) the application is being prosecuted pro se, or 3) the examiner knows from past experience that a telephone election will not be made, see MPEP Sect. 812.01.

Art Unit: 1614

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
